eHealth in human medicine studies at the University of Lübeck

Dear students and alumni of the University of Lübeck,

The Institute of Family Medicine at the University Hospital Schleswig-Holstein on the Lübeck campus is conducting a survey on the topic of eHealth in teaching at the University of Lübeck.

Your responses will help us to gain and identify insights and areas for improvement in teaching on the subject of eHealth.

The questionnaire will take about 10 minutes to complete.

If you have any questions about this project, please contact:

Instructions for completing the questionnaire

By submitting your questionnaire, you consent to the Institute of General Medicine evaluating and publishing your information. As the questions are collected anonymously, you cannot withdraw from the study once you have submitted the questionnaire.

Privacy policy:

Data is collected for the purposes of the above-mentioned research project. Your data will be stored and evaluated electronically in anonymous form. The provisions of the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) are complied with. Only employees involved in the study have access to the data contained in the questionnaires. These individuals are bound to confidentiality. The data is protected against unauthorized access. Third parties do not have access to the original documents.
